- b. If a motion falls within the terms of reference of a committee or a sub-committee or within the delegated powers conferred on an employee, a referral of the same may be made to such committee or sub-committee or employee provided that the Chairman may direct for it to be dealt with at the present meeting for reasons of urgency or expedience.

6. Rules of Debate

- a. Motions included in an agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear on the agenda unless the order is changed at the Chairman's direction for reasons of expedience.
- b. Except as provided by these standing orders any matter can be put forward without notice and if, following discussion of the matter a majority clearly support a particular course of action then their decision shall be treated as a resolution, duly seconded and approved.
- c. Subject to standing orders 4(a)-(e) above, a motion shall not be considered until it has been proposed and seconded.
- d. A motion included in an agenda not moved by the Councillor who tabled it, may be treated as withdrawn.
- e. A motion to amend an original or substantive motion shall not be considered unless proper notice has been given after the original or substantive motion has been seconded and notice of such amendment, shall, if required by the Chairman,

- be reduced to writing and handed to the Chairman who shall determine the order in which they are considered.
- f. A Councillor may move amendments to his own motion. If a motion has already been seconded, an amendment may be with the consent of the seconder.
 - g. Any amendments to a motion shall be either;
 - i. To leave out words;
 - ii. To add words;
 - iii. To leave out words and add other words.
 - h. A proposed or carried amendment to a motion shall not have the effect of rescinding negating or altering the basic intention of the original substantive motion under consideration.
 - i. Only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chairman. No further amendment to a motion shall be moved until the previous amendment has been disposed of.
 - j. Subject to Standing Order 6(h) above, one or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chairman considers this expedient but shall be voted upon separately.
 - k. Pursuant to Standing Order 6(i) above, the number of amendments to an original or substantive motion, which may be moved by a Councillor, is limited to one.
 - l. If an amendment is not carried, other amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chairman.
 - m. If an amendment is carried, the original motion, as amended, shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the substantive motion upon which any further amendments may be moved.
 - n. The mover of a motion or the mover of an amendment shall have a right of reply not exceeding 3 minutes unless at the discretion of the Chairman.
 - o. Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right to reply in respect of the substantive motion at the very end of the debate and immediately before it is put to the vote.
 - p. Subject to Standing Order 6(m) and (n) above, a Councillor may not speak further in respect of any one motion except to speak once on an amendment moved by another Councillor or to make a point of order or to give a personal explanation.
 - q. During the debate of a motion, a Councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the Councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A Councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the irregularity in the meeting he is concerned by.
 - r. A point of order shall be decided by the Chairman and his/her decision shall be final.
 - s. With the consent of the seconder and/or of the meeting, a motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer. A Councillor shall not speak upon the said motion or amendment unless permission for the withdrawal of the motion or amendment has been refused.

- t. Subject to standing order 6(o) above, when a Councillors motion is under debate no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. To amend the motion
 - ii. To proceed to the next business;
 - iii. To adjourn the debate;
 - iv. To put the motion to a vote;
 - v. To ask a person to be silent or for him to leave the meeting;
 - vi. To refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;
 - vii. To exclude the press and public;
 - viii. To adjourn the meeting;
 - ix. To suspend any standing order, except those which are mandatory.
- u. In respect of standing order 6 (s) (iv) above, the Chairman shall first be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated before it is seconded and put to the vote. The Chairman shall call upon the mover of the motion under debate to exercise his right of reply and shall put the motion to the vote after that right has been exercised or waived. The adjournment of a debate or of the meeting shall not prejudice the movers right of reply at resumption.

7 Code of Conduct (England)

- a. All Councillors shall observe the Code of Conduct adopted by the Council.
- b. If paragraph 12(2) of the Code of Conduct contained in the Local Authorities (Model Code of Conduct) order 2002 (SI No.1159) has been adopted by the Council or pursuant to relevant provisions in a statutory Code of Conduct in force at the time, Councillors may exercise the rights contained in standing order 7(c) below only if members of the public are permitted to (i) make representations, (ii) answer questions and (iii) give evidence relating to the business being transacted.
- c. Councillors with a prejudicial interest in relation to any item of business being transacted at a meeting may (i) make representations, (ii) answer questions and (iii) give evidence relating to the business being transacted but must, thereafter, leave the room.

8 Questions

- a. Questions not related to items of business on the agenda for a meeting shall only be asked during any adjournment to the meeting for the purposes of public participation at the discretion of the Chairman.

9 Minutes

- a. If a copy of the draft minutes of a preceding meeting has been circulated to Councillors no later than the day of service of the summons to attend the scheduled meeting they shall be taken as read.
- b. No discussion of the draft minutes of a preceding meeting shall take place except in relation to their accuracy. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the minutes shall be raised in accordance with standing order 5(a) (iv) above.
- c. Minutes, including any amendments to correct their accuracy, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
- d. If the Chairman of the meeting does not consider the minutes to be an accurate record of the meeting to which they relate, he shall sign the minutes and include a paragraph in the following terms or to the same effect: "The Chairman of this meeting does not believe that the minutes of the meeting of the () held on (date) in respect of () were a correct record but his view was not upheld on the majority of the () and the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the proceedings”.

- e. Upon a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of the meeting, any previous draft minutes or recordings of the meeting shall be destroyed.

10. Disorderly Conduct

- a. No persons shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly.
- b. If, in the opinion of the Chairman, there has been a breach of standing order 10(a) above, the Chairman shall express the opinion and thereafter any councillor (including the Chairman) may move that the person be silenced or excluded from the meeting, and the motion, if seconded, shall be put forthwith and without discussion.
- c. If a resolution made in accordance with standing order 10(b) above, is disobeyed, the Chairman may take such further steps as may reasonably be necessary to enforce it and/or he may adjourn the meeting.

11. Recession of previous resolutions

- a. A decision (whether affirmative or negative) of the Council shall not be reversed within 6 months except by way of either by a special motion, the written notice whereof bears the names of at least 4 elected members of the Council, and is placed on the agenda for the next full Council meeting.
- b. When a special motion or any other motioned moved pursuant to standing order 11(a) above has been disposed of, no similar motion may be moved within a further 6 months.

12. Voting on appointments.

- a. Where more than 2 persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the Council and none of those persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. Any tie may be settled by the Chairman's casting vote.

13. Expenditure

- a. Any expenditure incurred by the Council shall be in accordance with the Council's financial regulations.
- b. The Council's financial regulations shall be reviewed once a year.
- c. The Council's financial regulations may make provision for the authorisation of the payment of money in exercise of any of the Council's functions to be delegated to a committee, sub-committee or its employee.
- d. Any recommendations or motion which, if carried, would, in the opinion of the person chairing the meeting, substantially increase the expenditure upon any service which is under the management of or reduce the revenue at the disposal of the Council shall stand adjourned without discussion to the next ordinary meeting of the Council.

- e. All cheques and other orders or instructions authorising the payment of money shall be signed on behalf of the Council by the Clerk or other nominated person, and any two members of the Council.
- f. All requests to deliver up any item held on behalf of the Council in safe custody or for any other purpose or requests to transfer funds between current and deposit accounts shall be signed by the Clerk or nominated person.
